STERN STRUCTURAL ARITHMETIC

RAMAZ SUMMER MATH SEMINAR

Action is more conducive to the formation of images than is mere perception

Piaget

Give young children the structures and experiments that will enable them to:

- ♦ See, locate, feel, and compare the size of quantities.
- ♦ Develop a vocabulary to express numerical arrangements.
- ♦ Use symbols to record their discoveries.
- ♦ Confidently solve mathematical problems.

The Seminar will be held at:
Ramaz Middle School
125 East 85th Street
New York, NY 10028

The school is located at 85th Street and Lexington Avenue, one block south of the 4, 5, and 6 subways.
